Bank of the Sierra Announces Access to Over 43,000 Allpoint® Surcharge-Free ATMs

PORTERVILLE, CA — Bank of the Sierra is pleased to announce its surcharge-free ATM network has grown to over 43,000 worldwide, including more than 3,900 in California. Through its participation in the Allpoint network, a Cardtronics, Inc. affiliate (NASDAQ: CATM) and operator of the largest surcharge-free ATM Network, customers have access to surcharge-free ATM's at leading retail locations, including: 7-Eleven, CVS/pharmacy, Walgreens, Target and Costco.

“We are always looking for ways to enhance our customer experience, and through the Allpoint ATM network, we are able to offer our customers the convenience and value of the largest surcharge-free ATM network in America,” stated Jim Holly, Bank of the Sierra President and CEO.

The Allpoint ATM network is not new to the bank, but its network of surcharge-free ATMs continues to grow, recently expanding to other countries including Australia, Mexico, Puerto Rico and the United Kingdom. A full list of the bank's surcharge free ATM's can be seen by accessing the bank's website at <http://www.bankofthesierra.com/locations/allpoint-atm-network.html> or by downloading the free mobile Allpoint app for iPhone, BlackBerry, or Android devices.
