$1,000 Sierra Grant Awarded to Sequoia Mountain Rescue

Porterville, CA — Bank of the Sierra is pleased to announce a $1,000 Sierra Grant awarded to Sequoia Mountain Rescue. The trained team of individuals provides rescue services to the lost, stranded and injured visitors of the Central Sierra Nevada wilderness area. Funds will be used to help purchase new safety gear, such as rope, carabineers and webbing which have a short life span.

“When emergencies strike in the Sequoia National Park, the Sequoia Mountain Rescue is there to help aid stricken mountain travelers. We are happy to provide enthusiastic support of their efforts.” stated James C. Holly, President and CEO of Bank of the Sierra.

About The Sierra Grant Program

The Sierra Grant Program is designed to improve the quality of life for the families, especially the children, who reflect the diversity within Bank of the Sierra branch communities. The Sierra Grant Program is focused on three areas: community services, park preservation, and education. Anyone involved in a non-profit program that is interested in a Sierra Grant can pick up an instructional brochure at any Bank of the Sierra branch, or visit the bank web site at www.bankofthesierra.com.
