

Privacy Policy for Mobile Banking Application

This Privacy Policy describes the types of personal information (information that is identifiable to a particular person) that is collected (directly or through service providers) in connection with the Mobile Banking Application (App). This Privacy Policy is intended to supplement the disclosures in any Privacy Policy that you may have already been presented by us in connection with other services or online banking.

All natural persons whose personal information is either collected/received/possessed/stored or handled by Bank of the Sierra who uses the App are covered under this policy. We do not knowingly collect information from or about individuals under 18 years of age. Please do not submit such information to us, and as a parent or legal guardian, please do not allow your children to submit personal information without your permission.

We may use information provided to us by you or through the App to facilitate our service, and other everyday purposes, such as to maintain your ability to access the service, send you information about the service, to effect, administer and enforce transactions, to perform fraud screening, to prevent actual or potential fraud and unauthorized transactions, to verify your identity, to respond to legal requirements. This information may also be shared with third parties. These third parties are not authorized by us to use or disclose the information except as necessary to perform services on our behalf or comply with legal requirements.

The information we may collect includes Application settings; Contact information; Financial Information; Tracking Activity; Location; Camera; Contact Lists; Photos; Biometrics; Device History; Data Log; Device identifier.

We value your trust in providing us with your Personal Information, and strive to use commercially acceptable means of protecting the information. However protecting your device is important. You understand you must protect or lock your mobile device to protect unauthorized use of the App.

We may also share non-personal information, such as user statistics (e.g. number of downloads and registrations, most popular merchants), demographic information and Usage information with third parties for marketing or analytical purposes.

We do not share your personal information with ad networks, carriers, consumer data resellers, data analytics providers other than independent collection by those third parties described above, operating systems and platforms, other apps or social networks.

We may amend this policy at any time by posting a revised version in the App. The revised version will be effective immediately. Thus you are advised to review this page periodically for any changes. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new policy on this page.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or wish to provide updates or corrections to information about you, you may contact us at the mailing address or email address from the Contact Us link in the App.
